

Press Release, 25 August 2011

Research in Germany

Land of Ideas

Meet German universities and research institutions at the Naturejobs Career Expo!
Eighteen German universities, research institutions and funding organisations will come together as a “German Pavilion” to introduce themselves and their activities at the Naturejobs Career Expo on 22 September 2011 in London.

Naturejobs Career Expo is a high-end career fair that aims to introduce scientists at PhD level to potential new employers in their related research field. More than 1,000 scientists from the physics, chemistry, life sciences and medical sciences sectors will have the opportunity to meet with German representatives and discuss future employment opportunities at this year’s Naturejobs Career Expo.

The German pavilion is part of the “Research in Germany – Land of Ideas” campaign run by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) and will present the following institutions:

- Alexander von Humboldt Foundation (Bonn)
- Baden-Württemberg International (Stuttgart)
- BLOSS Centre for Biological Signalling Studies (Freiburg)
- Cologne Cluster of Excellence in Cellular Stress Responses in Aging-associated Diseases
- DAAD - German Academic Exchange Service (Bonn)
- DFG - German Research Foundation (Bonn)
- Goethe University Frankfurt
- Graduate School of Excellence Materials Science (Mainz)
- Humboldt Graduate School (Berlin)
- International Graduate School in Molecular Medicine (Ulm)
- International Max Planck Research School (IMPRS) for Astronomy and Astrophysics (Bonn)
- International Max Planck Research School (IMPRS) for Neural Circuits (Frankfurt)
- Konstanz Research School Chemical Biology
- Max Planck Society (Munich)
- Philipps-Universität Marburg
- Technische Universität München
- University of Applied Sciences (Mannheim)
- University of Münster

The German representatives will also hold an information session, titled “Research – Made in Germany”. The workshop will be offered free to anyone interested in researching in Germany and will provide further information on doctoral programmes and funding opportunities.

We invite all interested students, researchers and journalists to visit the German pavilion (9:00 am to 17:00 pm) and attend the free information session (14:30 to 16.30 pm).

Venue of the Naturejobs Career Expo (Opening hours 9:00 am to 17:00 pm):
Business Design Centre
52 Upper Street
Islington
London, N1 0QH.

Further information can be found at www.naturejobs.com/careerexpo.

For more information on the German pavilion, please contact:
Sandra Roessler
German Academic Exchange Service
+ 49 228 882 114
roessler@daad.de

Press Release, 25 August 2011

Research in Germany

Land of Ideas

For more information on the workshop, please contact:

Svenja Rausch

German Academic Exchange Service London

020 7831 9511

rausch@daad.org.uk

For more information on “Research in Germany”, please contact:

Anke Sobieraj

German Academic Exchange Service

+ 49 228 882 858

sobieraj@daad.de

or visit www.research-in-germany.de